2 BOYS ROB MESSENGER OF $53,500

Employee of Bank Says He Was Forced Into Elevator and $3500 in Currency and $50,000 in Checks Taken

Daring Hold-Up Is Alleged to Have Occurred at Noon in Heart of Bank District;
the Struggle Is Not Seen

SAN FRANCISCO, April 15.—
Floyd Craighead, messenger for the Bank of California, was held up and robbed of $3500 in currency, and checks calling for $50,000, shortly before noon today, according to a report he made himself. He says that two boys jumped from a doorway at 221 Sansome street, seized the satchel in which he was carrying the money, forced him into an elevator and carried him to the third floor of the building and beat him severely.

The place designated as the scene of the holdup is in front of the Japanese consulate, and the attack there after that they heard no sound of a struggle, although it was quiet and any unusual noise would have attracted their attention.

The police said that they do not understand why Craighead did not sound the alarm from the consulate instead of delaying, as he did.

Craighead, who is 19 years old, has been working for the bank for some time and has been entrusted with large sums of money many times. Every angle of his story is being investigated.

Iron Workers Told to Take Half Holiday

Notification that all of the unions affiliated with the San Francisco Iron Trades Council will begin taking a Saturday half holiday next Saturday was served on the employers and contract shops in the bay district today. About 10,000 men are affected, and it was announced that no opposition was looked for on the part of the employers, council officials said.

While only one or two minor unions are affiliated with the San Francisco Iron Trades Council, approximately 50 per cent of the unionized men of the Eastbay district have been taking the Saturday half holiday several weeks.
The Moore Shipbuilding Company immediately gave its men the 44-hour week irrespective of the agreement, by which the maintenance and repair shops were returned to work and which called for the institution of the 44-hour week on a sliding scale fully effective April 26.

The probabilities are that all the shipyard men will close down at noon next Saturday, in any event, according to local labor leaders, and it is believed that outside shops will also observe the Saturday half holiday.

Russian Royalty in Flight From Crimea

PARIS, April 14.—Twenty members of the former Russian Imperial family, including former Emperor
Nicholas II, and his family, reached Constantinople from the Crimea several days ago, according to the Echo de Paris. The party also included the former Grand Duke Nicholas Nikolaievitch, at one time commander-in-chief of the Russian army, and Peter Nikolaievitch, lieutenant general in the Russian Imperial army and a younger brother of Nicholas.

Nicholas and Peter, who married sisters of the Queen of Italy, having been invited to reside in Rome, have left Constantinople for the Italian capital. The others in the party, including the Dowager Empress, will go to Malta, where they will await the decision of the British government as to their future place of residence.

State Department Denies U. S. Deaths

WASHINGTON, April 15.—No
American soldiers were killed in the Tientsin disturbances on March 13, therefore no claims for damages could have been submitted by this government, the State Department announced in denying the report in a Chinese newspaper at San Francisco that the Japanese government had settled with the United States for $275,000 for the deaths of two American soldiers in the Tientsin clash.

1919 Diana to Down Athlete? Grecian Art Exponent Says So Grace and Skill vs. Muscle

Here is
MRS. DIANA
WATTS
in a Grecian pose.
She is to participate in a wrestling bout against a university athlete
as an incident of the course she is teaching at that institution of learning.

"I KNOW I CAN THROW HIM," IS FAIR ONE'S DEFENSE ASSEMBLY VOTES EQUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS FOR WIFE

Gymnastic training that combines the effectiveness of jiu-jitsu with the gracefulness that was of Greece has brought Mrs. Diana Watts, whose name, of course, is Diana—to the point where she believes she can down the best athlete the University of California holds. "Believes" is putting it mildly at that, for listen to Mrs. Watts:

"I am not going to 'try' to throw an athlete," she says. "I am going to throw him."

The one to be thrown at the selected time and place, next Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Greek Theater at Berkeley, is John R. Holt, university senior and prominent in college athletics.

Mrs. Watts comes here from Capri, Italy. She has been studying the movements registered in Greek sculpture. She knows now, she declares, what made the Greeks the most harmonious physically and mentally of all races. She is operating the civilized world, demonstrating to the peoples the harmonious regime that may re-establish this harmony, especially the physical and mental, which she exemplifies in the dance.

The throwing of the Berkeley athlete, Tuesday will be merely incidental to the lecture she will give.
There is one person she is going to have difficulty in converting. That is Holt himself. He does not believe any woman can put his 200 pound shoulders to the floor. But he says:

"I am perfectly willing to be thrown if Mrs. Watts can do it."
Professor Samuel J. Hume, head of the university's music and drama department, is arranging the appearance of Mrs. Watts. This noted woman who has appeared in practically all parts of the world is a member of the Institute of Medicine, the Archaeological School of Greece, and has recently published a book on "The Renaissance of the Greek Ideal," which deals with a new system of training and vital integration.

During her studies Mrs. Watts has become no mean athlete herself
—the story being told that upon a recent visit to Yale, or Harvard, or some other dignified center of learning and culture, she turned a somersault upon the lawn, and so gracefully it was done that the effect was not in the least shocking, but instead to appear at several of these same centers to give the next week under the auspices of the University of California, and to which the public is invited.

The London Observer says of Mrs.
Watts: "Art at its highest of course conceals Art, and because everything that Mrs. Watts does looks so simple and so obviously right it was difficult to realize how much close training had gone to make those actions so easy, effortless and perfect. There is an absolute sureness about everything she does because every movement is founded upon infallible and unchanging laws. It is moreover the control and co-ordinating of energy so that every physical movement is done in the most perfect way—with no waste of force—the will power and nervous energy controlling the muscles."

AMBASSADOR FOR JAPAN TO LEAVE U. S.

Viscount Ishii to Return Early in May to Nippon "for Conference on Various Matters" With His Government

Coming Journey Declared Significant in View of World Situation; Diplomat
May Not Return to America

BY UNITED PRESS.
WASHINGTON, April 15.—Viscount Ishii, Japanese ambassador to the United States, is returning to Japan, it was officially announced at the Japanese embassy today.

"The ambassador is returning to Tokyo for a conference regarding various matters before the Japanese government," the embassy statement declared. "The ambassador will depart the first of May."

It was stated today that there is nothing in the situation between the United States and Japan that would require his resigning the post here.
Nevertheless, both officials and diplomats understand he will not return. He is not one of the Harparty, now predominant in Japan and while he has worked in close harmony with the Har party, it is believed he may have differences in policy.

RETURN DECLARED SIGNIFICANT.

Significance is attached to Ishii's return for a conference in view of the Japanese situation in Paris, where the Tokyo delegates are threatening to withdraw from the peace conference, and in view of numerous "difficulties" that have arisen recently in the relations between the United States and Japan.

The ambassador goes to Tokyo to lay important matters regarding the Japanese situation before his government, the United Press was informed.

Following reports to the department that an American hospital in Korea had been entered by Japanese gentlemen and Korean patients in the building arrested and removed, together with the reported arrest of Rev. Ely Mowry, Presbyterian missionary, and the fact that the Japanese government had indicated that a "serious situation has been born."

Difficulties seem to be rapidly increasing between the two nations.
Reported Japanese indignities to American rights in Korea are being carefully investigated by this government. Previously there has

Summary of Peace Developments Huns to Pay Hundred Billion Marks

(By Associated Press)

Prospects of peace have become brighter as the result of agreements reached by the council of four at Paris. On April 25, which will be 165 days after the last gun of the great war was fired, allied and German delegates will gather at Versailles to discuss the treaty.
A statement by President Wilson indicates that the treaty with Germany would be completed in a very short time, and that meanwhile settlement of the conflicting claims of Italy and Jugoslavia to territory on the eastern shore of the Adriatic will be given preferential consideration.

It is probable that the allies of Germany will be called to Versailles almost immediately after the German delegates have received the allied terms and have passed upon them.

Germany, by the terms of the treaty, will be called upon to pay 100,000,000,000 gold marks, which at the pre-war rate of exchange would be equivalent to $25,000, 000,000. Of this sum there must be paid within two years an amount equal to $4,764,000 and during the next thirty years twice the sum must be turned over to the allies. A commission will determine when and how the remaining $9,528,000,000 of the reparations fund must be paid.

There seems to be an agreement on the problem of the Franco-German frontier. It is said that the Germans will be compelled to withdraw all troops from a zone 25 miles wide on the right bank of the Rhine, while the allies will hold the left bank of that river until the first installment of the inden-nity is paid.

It is indicated that France and Belgium will receive a major portion of the indemnity, it being estimated that 35 per cent of the total will go to them.

S. F. WOMAN IS DEPORTED BY GREAT BRITAIN

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LONDON, April 15.—Miss Lillian Scott Troy, 37, of San Francisco, has been deported to the United States for "activities detrimental to the British and allied cause," the home office announced today.

Miss Troy, who was under surveillance throughout the war, was said to have been a friend of the notorious Baron von Horst. Her activities are said to have included following of British disturbances, she was escorted to Liverpool by a Scotland Yard detective and placed aboard a liner.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 15.—
Miss Lillian Scott Troy, who is alleged to have been a friend of Baron Louis von Horst, a former San Francisco resident, is in this city for a number of years and has been a short story writer of considerable fame, according to her brother, Attorney Robert J. Troy, 1775 Bush street. Other relatives are E. P. E.
Troy, a brother, and a sister, Mrs.
Rick Troy, all of whom reside here.

"She left San Francisco for London fifteen years ago," Attorney Troy said this morning, "and took up her residence in London, where she has been for a number of years and has become interested in the business and of this industry."

The following statement was issued by Attorney Troy:

"I believe this is a British government's answer to the Irish friends of freedom mass meeting which was held here last Saturday night. My sister was interested in a number of movements against which the British had made charges that certain of the stockholders were pro-German and confiscated the stock under the alien enemy statute."

"Lillian brought a suit against Great Britain through the state department for compensation for stock of her own which was taken. The suit has been pending for some time."

WILSON WILL SAIL FOR HOME IN SHORT TIME

Peace Terms Are to Be Given to Germans April 25 and Separate Treaties Will Be Made With the Other Foes

President Is Expected to Call
Special Session of Congress
Not Later Than June 1st
for Ratification of Treaty

PARIS, April 14 (Havas).—President Wilson intends to sail for the United States April 27 or 28, after being present at the opening meeting of the peace conference at Versailles, the Echo de Paris says today.
After his departure Colonel E. M.
House will act for him, the newspaper adds.

By FRED S. FERGUSON.
United Press Staff Correspondent.

PARIS, April 15.—The peace program was authoritatively outlined today as follows:

The treaty will be handed to the Germans April 25.

If the Germans have plenary powers, it will be signed almost immediately; otherwise it will first

WILSON SAYS ALL PROBLEMS NEAR SOLUTION

PARIS, April 15.—A statement by President Wilson in behalf of the Council of Four says that the questions of peace are so near a complete solution that they will be quickly and finally drafted. This announcement was contained in an official bulletin, which added that the German plenipotentiaries had been invited to meet at Versailles on April 25.

The President hopes that the questions of Italy, especially relating to the Adriatic, will be brought to a speedy agreement. The Adriatic question will be given precedence over other questions.

The settlements belonging especially to the treaty with Germany, the statement says, will thus be got out of the way, and at the same time other settlements will be completely formulated.

MORE SERIOUS NOW

Than Ever Before Because of War-Reduced Reserve Strength.

The war has been far-reaching in its effects. It has caused war anxiety in every home, and has affected the health of every family. It has aggravated chronic troubles, increased their tenacity, and made all spring ailments more serious.

As a result, a blood-purifying, stomach-toning spring medicine is now necessary this year than ever.

People still take blood-scarcifying because it is an old family friend, has proved its merit to three generations—as a spring and all-year-round medicine in purifying the blood, expelling humors, restoring appetite, relieving rheumatism, banishing that third feeling.

It combines roots, barks, herbs and berries often prescribed by physicians for spring ailments of the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys. Blood's Pills are a good cathartic.—Advertisement.

Kautsky Shows German War Guilt Documents Not to Be Published

BERLIN, April 15.—The so-called Kautsky papers from the German foreign office, showing the exchange of notes that finally led to the outbreak of war in 1914, will probably not be published. The incriminating papers are no longer Kautsky papers, anyway. They are again German foreign office papers.

Herr Karl Kautsky has been quietly hunted by the foreign office, since he belongs to the Radicals and is their platform writer. In January Kautsky still working on the papers, went to Switzerland to attend the International Socialist conference at Bern. He was required to give an oath that he would not divulge the contents of the papers he had worked with. When Kautsky returned to Berlin after the conference, he found that the papers had been placed in other hands and that the foreign office no longer spoke of publishing them. Count Bantzau, foreign secretary, opposed publication. Kautsky no longer has any connection with the foreign office.

KNOWS WHO'S GUILTY.
As matters stand, though, the foreign office cannot ignore Herr Kautsky, who knows too much. Kautsky could not tell what was in the foreign office papers, he had no objections to telling the United Press his own convictions, which he frankly admitted were strengthened by his investigations.

Kautsky is convinced of Germany's guilt in wanting and provoking the war. "We ought to publish these papers and make a clean breast of it," he says. "If we do not, we will only show the world who is to blame, but it would show the German people how they were duped. The German people are not to blame. They have been led with propaganda and armaments. Publishing these secret papers would set every one right. But I doubt if the papers will be published now. The foreign office still longer fears the Socialists, and it did directly after the Kaiser's overthrow."

KAISER CRIMINAL.
"To me the most interesting feature of the papers was the notations made by the Kaiser in the margins as he read them. It is enthralling. The Kaiser, the military leaders and government heads at the time war broke out are directly responsible for the war, and I think it when they could have prevented it."

Asked in regard to Russia's share in starting war, Kautsky said definitely: "Russia is not responsible for the war. Before hostilities broke out, the Czar sent a telegram to the Kaiser pleading that the whole matter be laid before The Hague tribunal. The telegram was received, but never answered. Though there was time to answer it before relations were broken. It was ignored and war started."

BLAME LUDENDORFF.
Kautsky thinks Ludendorff's head should be beaten with a hammer for the time precedence over other questions and pressed by continual study to its final stage.

"The statements that belong especially to the treaty with Germany will in this way be got out of the way at the same time that all other settlements are being brought to a complete formulation. It is realized that, though this process must be followed, all the questions of the present great settlement are parts of a single whole."

It is expected that the delegates of the other enemy powers will follow the Germans within a few days after their arrival at Versailles, April 25.

GRIEF-SHAKEN WOMAN FOUND FONDLING BABE

Mr. H. A. Bentley, 2908 California street, Berkeley, who disappeared from his home last Saturday night, was found by her husband today after a two-day search of the bay district, where her disappearance was reported. She was found with her arms closely holding the little daughter of Mrs. Bentley, who was found on the beach at the Warner house, 117 Fourth avenue, San Francisco.

The little Warner girl bore a striking resemblance to Mrs. Bentley's infant son who was burned to death last December. Some time ago Mrs. Bentley, through her sister, Miss May Apperson, of this city, met Mrs. Warner and the latter's husband, at which time she was identified at the starting resemblance between the child and her own son. At this time, according to Mrs. Warner, she cried grievously and could not be consoled at her loss.

On Saturday Mrs. Bentley took her husband's automobile and disappeared until 2 o'clock Sunday morning, when the automobile was found in a garage near the Warner house. Mrs. Bentley was found there the last boat to San Francisco. A search was immediately begun which proved futile until this morning.

When Mrs. Bentley was found, she was found with her arms closely holding the little daughter of Mrs. Bentley, who was found on the beach at the Warner house, 117 Fourth avenue, San Francisco.

PEACE PACT TO SHEAR HUN POWER

All the principles will be set forth and will be followed by specific protocols covering separate divisions. Among these protocols will be the league of nations covenant in which the Germans will subscribe, although they will not be admitted to membership in the league until they are voted in under the covenant provision for acceptance of new members.

In addition to the military and naval terms, which have already been outlined, the treaty will cover all other ground completely. (Exclusive United Press dispatches.) The March 22 stated Germany would be allowed an army of 100,000 men, a navy of six battleships, six light cruisers and twenty-four destroyers and torpedo boats and no military air force. Also that she would be rendered further impotent through allied control of her war materials.

The military and naval terms will contain approximately 12,000 words, reparations the same, frontiers and responsibilities about 5000 each. Boundaries, which will require at least 5000 words, will give Alsace-Lorraine to France, as well as give the French possession of the Saar coal mines. The valley will be administered by France as mandatory for the league of nations for fifteen years, after which a plebiscite will be held. The Rhine boundary is not changed, but the forts will be dismantled and France will be given guarantees against attack, which she has characterized as "most acceptable."

The waterways provisions include internationalization of the Rhine, Elbe and Oder rivers. The Kiel canal will be left in Germany's possession, but will be open to passage of all ships in peace time and its forts will be dismantled.

As outlined yesterday, the reparations section of the treaty probably will be based on a provision at minimum indemnity of $25,000,000,000. The permanent reparations committee will be expected to get as much more as Germany's financial and economic condition permits after the initial installment of $5,000,000,000, which will be paid within two years. The general belief is that France will get about 55 per cent of the total amount of indemnity.

While the responsibilities committee has agreed on indictment and trial of minor enemy officials in the countries in which their crimes were committed, whether the former Kaiser and his chief accomplices shall be corporally punished probably will be determined at the plenary session next week, owing to the fact that the committee failed to agree on this point.

Premier Clemenceau conferred with Colonel House yesterday afternoon and expressed satisfaction with the progress of the peace work. He is understood to have informed House that the Matin's attacks against President Wilson are not inspired by the government. On the contrary, he said, the attacks were directed more at him than at Wilson.

Storekeeper Bound, Gagged and Robbed

Police are looking for two robbers who entered the store of T. Kanada, 670 Seventeenth street, last evening and bound and gagged Kanada. The robbers obtained $50. The two men adjusted masks as they entered the store, according to Kanada, who was able to give only a meager description of them. After they had left he worked loose from his bonds and summoned the police.

Early Demobilization Plans for Presidio

Men arriving at the Presidio of San Francisco from now on will be demobilized without loss of time, according to the fact that the public policy by Captain Clyde C. Birch, demobilization expert from Washington. Soldiers from France in great numbers will be sent to the Presidio shortly and the plans of Captain Birch contemplate sending them into civil life within twenty-four hours after reaching camp.

CONFESSION IS EXPECTED IN REED CASE

Two new arrests in the Inez Eliza Reed murder case are expected to follow a confession to be held tonight between District Attorney Franklin Swart, of San Mateo county, and Captain of Detectives Duncan Matheson, Lieutenant Charles Goff and Detective Sergeant James Gallagher of San Francisco, who have had charge of the investigation since the identification of Miss Reed's body.

District Attorney Swart said yesterday at the close of the preliminary hearing, when Dr. Ephraim Northcott was held for trial to the Superior Court without bail on a charge of having murdered Alice Reed, that the two new arrests would be of a man and woman already identified with the case, predicated by his statement upon "we expect a confession which will involve the only two, but a third not heretofore identified with the case."

The pendulum of the case swung to the Eastbay district yesterday, when Dr. Northcott announced that his senior counsel in the defense of his case would be Attorney H. H. McPike of Oakland, chairman of the Alameda County Democratic committee, assisted by Attorney J. J. Cunningham. When this announcement was made Attorney McPike was asked to indicate the defense he would make for his client following the filing of an information by the district attorney.

"The principal witness for the state seems to be Miss Katherine Fisher. We have investigated the antecedents of this young lady and will attempt to impeach her testimony as a result of her reputation for truth, honesty and integrity obtained from those who knew her when she resided in the 1400 block on Addison street, West Berkeley, with a Mrs. Rand, and from whose home she was ordered to leave."

The suspended traffic officer, Allen E. Noreen, who with his fiancée, Dr. Northcott's nurse, Mrs. Frances Cronin, have attracted little less attention in the case than Dr. Northcott himself, was not given a hearing on charges before the police commission last night, a continuance being asked and given his attorney, E. J. Iboe, following the filing of new charges by Lieutenant Sylvester of the traffic squad. In these Noreen was charged with having had knowledge of the murder of Miss Reed in the Highland avenue house at San Mateo, which Dr. Northcott had rented from S. A. Born, and to have been a visitor at the house on March 7, the day the police allege the criminal operation was performed which resulted in her death. Noreen admitted yesterday that Mrs. Cronin had also been in the house on this date and that he could identify the driver of the red car which the next door neighbor to the Highland avenue house, Miss Lizzie E. Switzer, testified at the hearing went to the house on March 7.

POLICEMAN URGES PLEA OF ILLNESS

George Muller, policeman, accused of driving an automobile while intoxicated, came to his trouble through taking two drinks of brandy because of illness, according to his statement in the hearing before Commissioner F. P. Morse. He has been suspended for ten days and fined $200.

Amateur Wireless Is Again Permitted

ALAMEDA, April 15.—Lieutenant Ford Greaves, in charge of the aerial government service in this district, notified Chief of Police Walter O. Jacoby today that amateur wireless operators could not be operated without military restrictions, save that the outfits could not be used for commercial purposes.

SHORTER BED SHEETS MEET SENATE FAVOR

SACRAMENTO, April 15.—The Senate voted yesterday to clip nine inches off bed sheets used in hotels and lodging houses in the state. A bill by Senator Hart, a hotel proprietor, amending the present law by providing for the reduction in length from 38 to 31 inches was passed, 31 to 4.

Hart said the change was asked because the 91-inch sheets were "long enough" and because the law requiring 98-inch sheets cost the hotel proprietors hundreds of dollars annually in waste.

BASEBALL FANS BANDIT VICTIMS

Four Oakland baseball fans, on their way to Sacramento last Sunday, to witness the Oakland team lose, themselves proved to be losers in an encounter with five holdup men in a big gray car near Altamont at 3:45 Sunday morning. The fans were driving alone, enjoying the early morning air and anticipating a pleasant day. Near Altamont the highwaymen stopped them, commanded them to get out, using guns to enforce the command. They were lined up alongside the road, searched and relieved of $25, a diamond, three rings and two watches.

"The unassisted loyalty of the negro soldier and his courage, obedience and patriotism, despite a justified consciousness of much injustice and denial of rights, have shown him worthy of our confidence and praise."

TROOPSHIP HAS TROUBLE MAKING PORT

NEW YORK, April 15.—The big transport Canopic, from Marselles, with an army personnel of 1468, mostly Ohio troops, including the 32d infantry, field and staff, supply and machine gun companies, and Companies E, F, G, H and M, arrived here today and docked at 11 o'clock at pier 60, North river.

The Canopic came limping into port with a decided list to starboard, caused by shifting cargo. She was warped into her pier with some difficulty.

The troops aboard the liner were under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel William G. Everson of Norwood, a suburb of Cincinnati. Lieutenant-Colonel Everson is pastor of the Norwood Baptist Church in civil life. He objects, however, to being designated as a fighting parson.

"You can say for me," said the commander, "that the troops under my command obeyed orders, carried out everything they were asked to do and did every task well. There is not a better lot of soldiers in the world."

"Also, please state emphatically that the boys did not have to eat horse meat in Italy. The reports circulated to this effect were absolutely false."

Cribbins Honored Before Departure

W. W. Cribbins, business manager in this city for the San Francisco Chronicle, was given a farewell by friends prior to his departure this morning for New York to assume an important post in the eastern metropolis. He was presented by his Oakland friends with a traveling trunk.

Local business men to the number of 120 attended a luncheon at the Hotel Oakland yesterday in honor of Cribbins and he was fettered by several speakers, who assured him of their best wishes for his success in the east. Among those who gave talks were: H. C. Capwell, president of the Chamber of Commerce, who presided as toastmaster; Harrison Bell, Harrison S. Robinson, J. O. Lawrence, B. A. Forrester, John F. Smith, J. H. Hammond, George Cummings and William Nat Friend.

At a recent special meeting of the Oakland Advertising Club Cribbins was commended for his efforts in behalf of the advertising clubs of the city, county and state. For three terms Cribbins was president of the advertising club in this city, and is a life honorary president. He was also president of the Pacific Coast Advertising Men's Association. It was through his efforts that the Oakland Advertising Club became a part of the Chamber of Commerce and he organized the Ad Stuyvesant and Boosters' tour through the Pacific Northwest. Cribbins will be succeeded in the Chronicle office here by J. H. Lehmann.

One to Ten Years for Auto Theft

Paul Iyer, who stole an automobile belonging to Neil Harris, son of Judge T. W. Harris, to take his wife and baby on a pleasure trip, was today sentenced to a term of one to ten years in San Quentin by Judge Quinn Ivey. Iyer, 24, was arrested last night. The investigation disclosed that he was at the time of the theft on probation from Los Angeles for a similar offense. Probation Officer Compton reported adversely and his report indicated that the man's misconduct is due to his physical condition. It is expected that he will be successfully treated at the county hospital and be able to return to his family at the end of six months. His wife, who earns her living, was in court with the little boy.

In Hawaii white men are desired for duty, and in the Philippines colored men are desired for the mounted service. With the exception of Hawaii, infantrymen, signal corps, medical department and coast artillery men are desired.

The enlistment period is for three years. The local army recruiting office also is conducting an extensive campaign for enlistment in the military service, in which the enlistment period is optional from one to three years.

Witnesses Sought in Major Woodman Case

LOS ANGELES, April 15.—Several subpoenas were issued for witnesses in the trial of Mayor F. T. Woodman, charged with accepting a bribe, to begin next Thursday in the Superior Court here, when the case will be heard by Judge J. H. Harte. One for Burt Armstrong, a newspaper man formerly employed here and now said to be a correspondent in Sacramento for a San Francisco newspaper. He is ordered to produce alleged correspondence between him and Horace Karr, who is named in the indictment against Woodman as intermediary between the mayor and men furnishing bribe money for the protection of vice.

Armstrong will be a defense witness.

Jurors Excused, but Man Is Convicted

In spite of the fact that women of the jury asked to be excused from service because the defendant is a sick man, Matthew J. Murphy, age 70, who attempted burglary but secured nothing for his effort, was convicted today of the attempt. Mrs. Sadie Joubert and Mrs. Harriet K. Kull were the women jurors excused by District Attorney Myron Harris when they said they would hesitate to convict a man who leaves a sister, especially when he is sick, and were excused.

Murphy claimed that he was in a superior due to an attack of influenza when he committed the offense of rifling the suitcase of Oscar Brandt, a returned soldier. He was immediately sentenced to San Quentin for a period of from one to five years.

He retired seven years after sailing out of the local port for more than twenty years, but had recently renewed his license for this year.

Born in India 60 years ago, Captain Shorey came to California more than 30 years ago and had lived in Oakland for the last twenty-eight years. He was a member of Court Golden Gate, No. 207, Grand United Order of Odd Fellows and also held membership in the Order of Foresters.

Surviving is a widow, Mrs. Julia A. Shorey, a daughter, Victoria G. Shorey, and a son, William T. Shorey Jr. Also he leaves a sister, Mrs. Martha Attey of New York.

New "Badger Game" Here, Is Alleged

A new style of "badger game" is believed to have been discovered by the police following the arrest last night of "Doctor" Julius William Smith, George H. Stannard and Mrs. Rodie Dorsey in a rooming house at 492 Ninth street.

Smith, with a case of surgical instruments, is said to have accompanied Stannard to the room occupied by Mrs. Dorsey, and there demanded she submit to a medical examination. Stannard previously is said to have accompanied the woman to her room. They had both registered as Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Adams.

That there was a plot to "shake down" the woman is believed likely by the police. Police Sergeant Charles Hemphill is investigating.

$10 a Minute Luzzing to Laundry Keeper

"Judge Slamm'll keep the 'luzzes,' Lou Sam Kee, keeper of a laundry on Seventh street, told the officer who arrested him for running his laundry without a license last night. "I'll be friends at city hall," he added smilingly.

But when Kee appeared in court and saw Judge Herbert Wise, who was occupying the ancient last night of Samuel, he looked puzzled. When the new judge slapped on a $10 fine he looked more puzzled. Every Spring Kee's license becomes due. Every spring he waits until the officer on his beat discovers his license is overdue. Then Kee gets a new license, shows it to the judge and goes away happy.

So, today the smile is absent.

COUNCIL WARNS EGYPT STRIKERS

CAIRO, Monday, April 14.—The council of ministers today issued a proclamation warning the strikers that disorders might lead to anarchy, and urged them not to incur "this terrible responsibility." It declares the sultan's aim in forming the new cabinet was "to take the first step toward confining the maintenance of order and tranquility to the hands of Egyptian authority."

The reference in the foregoing to the departure of Egyptians abroad evidently refers to the recent permission given thirteen nationalist leaders to proceed to Europe. The Egyptian nationalists have been desirous of presenting their case on the British government in London, and it was recently announced in the House of Commons that a delegation of Egyptian ministers would shortly visit England, the understanding being also that objection had been waived by the British government to the inclusion in the delegation of certain of the nationalist leaders originally debarred from making the trip.

Young Bride Again Seeks Her Freedom

Mrs. Ruth De Long, whose marriage to Wade Aydelotte was annulled because she was not of age when it was contracted, today sued her present husband, Charles W. De Long, for divorce, alleging extreme cruelty. She charges that he threw coffee at her, that he often struck her, once breaking her thumb, and that he swore at her on numerous occasions. They were married in January, 1918, shortly after her marriage to Aydelotte was annulled. Michael Corato, employed by the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway, is plaintiff in a suit for divorce filed today by Corato against his wife, Christina, in which Mrs. Corato is charged with remaining away from home for a week without explaining when or where she was with. It is alleged that she refused to answer her husband when he was sick and that she aggravated his condition by slamming the door and staying away from the house.

U. S. Tells Dealers Sugar to Stay Up

NEW YORK, April 15.—The United States food administration today advised dealers in refined sugar to take immediate steps toward replenishing their stocks, in order to avoid possible shortages during the season of heavy buying between June and October 1.

While there is no shortage of sugar at present and none in prospect, "at least before next fall," the authorities division of agriculture said, "warmed dealers that there was no in-

She alleged that she was crossing the street when the machine, which was being driven in a reckless manner struck her down, fracturing her skull and otherwise seriously injuring her.

WILSON THREAT FOR JAPANESE BILL SPONSORS

SACRAMENTO, April 15.—A new angle of the administration's attitude toward anti-Japanese legislation in the California Senate was disclosed today with the receipt of another cablegram from President Wilson.

The president, through Secretary Lansing, thanks the Senate for "deferring action" on the bills, which in his earlier message were declared "untimely" in view of developments at the peace conference.

This is taken as an indication that the administration is not opposed to anti-Japanese legislation per se, or to consideration of the bills at a later and more opportune time.

The latest cablegram also carries a promise to remember the senators who were responsible for having the action deferred with its converse that those who fight for the bills will not be forgotten.

It also carries a hint that other than the official Senate communications to Paris on the matter have been passing. No names were mentioned in the Senate communications, although Lansing says: "I shall take pleasure in informing the President of the action of those who are responsible."

"Wear-Ever" Aluminum Cooking Utensils

Look for the "Wear-Ever" trade mark on the bottom of each utensil.

They know that, because of the strength, and enduring qualities of these beautiful utensils, they are saved the expense and annoyance of continually buying new utensils.

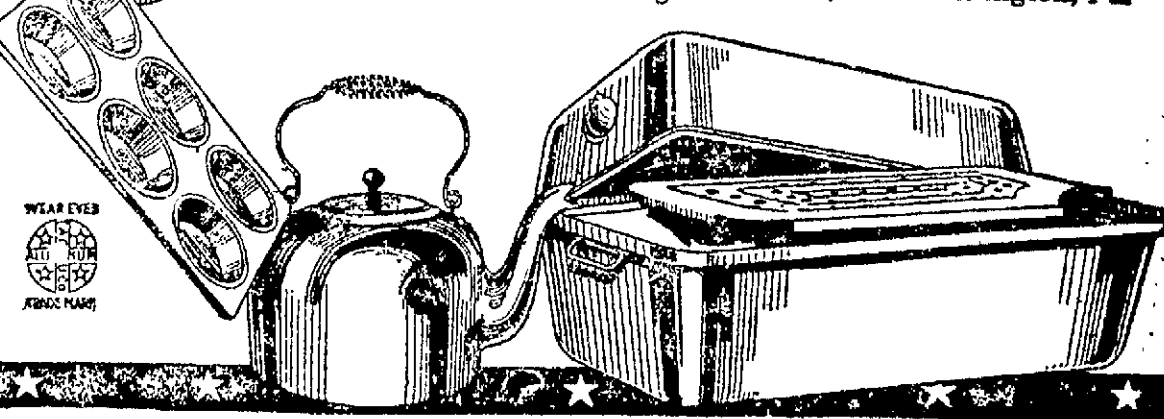

"Wear-Ever" utensils are made in one piece—without joint or seam—from thick, hard sheet aluminum. They have no coating to chip or peel; no place for food to lodge—cannot rust—are pure and safe.

It is now possible to resume manufacturing a complete line of "Wear-Ever"—including those styles and sizes which could not be secured during the war because of the demands of the National Service.

PRISCILLA IS AGAIN ASKING FOR PROBATION

Priscilla Dean, former movie actress and alleged forger, is one of the prettiest young women who has appeared in the police courts on a criminal charge in a long time.

Each time she appears she tells the judge a pretty story. Then there is an investigation. But somehow the stories all turn out to be lies.

She has been in court five times on her plea for probation, but each time it seems there is a hitch. This morning her case was up again.

The first time Priscilla appeared she looked so young and innocent and her lawyer told such a pitiful story that everybody felt sorry for her. Prosecutor William J. Hennessy couldn't quite decide whether to have the bailiff take a collection for her in the court room or simply to let her go without ceremony.

Judge Samuels decided that the probation officer ought to look into her case as a matter of fact.

WILLING TO MARRY, BUT—The next time she appeared a young fellow stood by her side. He wanted to marry her as soon as the judge would let her go. Priscilla said she was willing.

But again there was delay. At appearance No. 3 the probation officer was able to report that Priscilla already had a husband in the navy and they didn't think it wise to let her stand by the marriage arrangement.

For all that she insisted she didn't want to go to jail, and the judge gave her another chance while probation officers investigated further. She gave the name of the nearest relative, who she said was an uncle, a prominent physician in New York. Last week the New York probation officers reported that at the address given by Priscilla, a white man had never been known to reside. It is in the heart of New York's darkest Africa.

This morning probation officers appeared in court to say that they had found Priscilla, and were ready to produce her in court again for further explanation.

She was arrested in Oakland on a bad check charge two weeks ago. About the same time a bad check charge was lodged against her in San Francisco. By making the check good there she obtained her release.

Judge Samuels at one of her hearings asked the police of the San Francisco authorities in releasing persons accused of forgery if they make good the amounts.

Priscilla said, "I don't go here," he announced.

The room of M. V. Hines in the Key Route Inn, was robbed yesterday afternoon. Hines reported to the police today. The thief took $50 in cash, a pair of gloves, and several neckties and cufflinks. A police investigation reveals that the thief probably entered by means of a pass key.

A diamond ring, a lady's gold watch and a stick pin were stolen from the home of Mrs. K. S. Stambuch, 1521 Hempel street, by burglars who entered her home last night. She has reported to the police.

A burglar last night entered the home of L. W. Wentworth, 1601 Wellington avenue, by prying open a rear window. He ran across the house but escaped without taking any loot, according to Wentworth.

Three Youths Run Away to Join Circus
The lure of springtime and the circus lured three youths in Oakland and the city prison last night. They will return to their homes today.

They are Cleopha Moore, of Los Angeles, Andrew Gutro of Stockton, and Willie Whitaker of Sacramento. The last named is a negro. The boys were found by Sergeant Pullman at the foot of Oak street and he took them to the police station. They told him they had run away from home with a circus and had come to Oakland in anticipation of rejoining it here. All are 17 years old.

TRIPLE WEDDING FOLLOWS DIVORCE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 15.—Six persons were married by Judge James M. Trout in his chambers late yesterday afternoon after the party had driven in one machine from Sacramento. Two of the six had just received their final decree of divorce, but their estrangement did not interfere with the merriment.

They were Percy Z. Brewster, machinist, of Vallejo, who at yesterday's ceremony married Miss Kathleen P. Lausman, of Vallejo, and Mrs. C. D. Brewster of Sacramento, who married Calvin H. Anderson, stage line operator of Woodland. The other couple were Walter Kuhn, a Woodland tractor, who married Inez M. Freshour, 1719 Polk street, San Francisco.

After the wedding the couples chased each other through the corridors, throwing rice and causing considerable commotion in the big building. Then they went out to a wedding feast and for a merry party.

'No Liquor, No Taxes,' Is Latest; It Wins

Taxation without representation started the Revolutionary war—and taxation without ingurgitation has started a little revolution right here in Oakland.

Charles Hobbs, a traveling salesman in his return of personal property tax blanks, has refused to pay a tax on his brother's liquor.

"The old gentleman," he writes on his blank filed in the city assessor's office, "has two dozen quarts of whiskey that he uses at the rate of a quart a month, but I never get any of it, so don't see why I should pay a tax on it."

Auditor Fred Le Balister agreed, and canceled the item.

U.S. Is Fair, Feeling in Germany Enemy Alien News Is Published

BERLIN, April 15.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press).—Detailed announcement of America's action last December in abolishing restriction upon movements of enemy aliens in the United States is published prominently in the morning papers. The delay is understood to be due to the fact that the German government has only just been informed of the action.

While the news, according to a semi-official announcement, now is published to reassure relatives and friends of Germans in America, it undoubtedly is intended to contribute to the very general feeling among the German people that the United States is treating the conquered enemy as fairly and considerately as possible.

It also is likely to increase the realization even among classes of which Count Reventlow is an exponent that Germany must rely upon the services of America as an advocate to obtain what she considers just and reasonable terms of peace and eventual restoration to a place in the family of nations.

Steel Ships to Total Four Million Tons

WASHINGTON, April 15.—Steel ships built in American yards this year are expected to total at least four million tons. The output, according to Shipping Board officials, will exceed by seven hundred thousand tons the combined construction of both steel and wood bottoms last year, and it is expected to make good Chairman Hurley's prediction of a steel merchant marine under the United States flag comparing with the best merchant vessels into the war has been replaced by almost official superintendence.

The correspondent's chief criticism of the Americans is based upon the strictness with which orders are enforced against the exchange of gifts, food or cigarettes between Americans and Germans. He says that 25 of the 50 sentences imposed upon Germans by the American court in Coblenz in January were for "unauthorized possession of American property" arising from the enforcement of this order. He tells of the case of one American officer who was cashiered "merely for putting his arm around a waitress in a cafe."

FLYER HONORED FOR BRAVE DEED

WASHINGTON, April 15.—Award of the Congressional medal of honor to the late Second Lieutenant Frank Luke Jr. for conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity above and beyond the call of duty in action near Murvaux, France, September 29, 1918, is announced by the War Department. Lieutenant Luke's home address was 2200 West Monroe street, Phoenix, Arizona.

The official recommendation was as follows: "After having destroyed a number of enemy aircraft within twenty-one days, he voluntarily started on a patrol after German observation balloons. Though pursued by eight German planes, which were protecting the enemy balloon line, he unhesitatingly attacked and shot down in flames three German balloons, being himself under fire from the ground batteries and the hostile planes. Severely wounded, he descended to within fifty meters of the ground and flying at this low altitude near the town of Murvaux, opened fire upon the enemy troops, killing six and wounding as many more. Forced to make a landing and surrounded on all sides by the enemy, who called upon him to surrender, he drew his automatic pistol and defended himself gallantly until he fell dead with a wound in the chest."

News of the Churches

FIRST CHRISTIAN. Rev. H. A. Van Winkle's Sunday night sermon at the First Christian church at Grand avenue and Webster street, assumed the form of a story on the question "Who sent John to jail?" John was born in a down and out part of the city, in a flat where seven families lived. His father was a drunkard and died when John was three years old and the mother a frail woman, was left to carry on the struggle for existence alone for another ten years when she also died. During the first thirteen years of the boy's life, he was never in a Sunday school, and very little in any kind of a school. His chief amusement was a struggle with the hero always, who had a bunk on the roof with another man's wife or where the police were in the light of and the church revolved.

At the psychological moment in a boy's life at the age of thirteen he was left an orphan and was absolutely lacking in the three essentials of character—compassion, love and proper instruction. With such a background he faced the world for himself. The next several years were a struggle for three living and all his association was with the undesirable. One day at the age of 20 he saw a crowd in front of the city hall. Curiosity led him to join the crowd and he heard a city official say to the men: "These street cars and the bank across the way belong to you." He immediately turned the revolution to break into the bank and get some of the money that belonged to him but in the effort he was caught and sent to jail. He was not altogether blame for his crime. He was unfortunate in his heredity and environment.

Who sent John to jail? All who tolerated the conditions that made him a moral delinquent. He treated other men as he himself was treated. He would be arrested for cruelty. He would be imprisoned another ten years. He would be beaten to realize that children should know something about God and will take them to church and Sunday school and the state instead of putting a bullet in the hands of John. When he is in jail will put the principles of the Bible into his head so early that he will not need to be sent to jail. The great problem before us is Christian education. When this is solved we will have fewer criminals and happier homes.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN. Rev. Frank M. Sullivan's Palm Sunday sermon was a scientific and scriptural denunciation of death. Platonism cults a beautiful adventure the soldier speaks of it as "going west" but Christianity teaches it is only a change of residence. We live death because it is deferred. With our desire to live on in this world.

The matured man and woman dislike to sever their ties from the old friends and the old training and customs for a new life. The familiar is like the aged woman who said that she would not dare to die, so much if she could only take her things with her into the next life. And death is a lonely experience. But when does death conquer one? It conquers when we meet it unpreparedly by spirit, deeds and character. The man who is unpreparedness is men deliberately rushing to death with a record of unrepented sins, an accident here and a sudden life.

In the very nature of things death rushes and defeats the unprepared and the majority of us are going on an unpreparedness parade before their arch enemy. But death can be conquered. It can be conquered by the son that lives in Christ. The future life is a glorious anticipation to the soul believer. His life in heaven becomes the most triumphant confidence in his life. He understands how anyone can refuse to believe in heaven. He conquers death by a victorious hope. The assurance is that he will triumph over the grave as his Master did.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL. The First Congregational church was decorated with branches of palm and actually arranged to constitute great palm trees with wires at their base. At 8:30 in the afternoon in lieu of any evening service the choir assisted by guests from other churches rendered Brahms' Requiem. In the presence of an audience that crowded the auditorium and gallery.

The Requiem is not a play but a religious production in which every word is taken from the Bible. The music is difficult but was rendered in a way that showed the trained ability of the music. The Requiem was directed by Mrs. Anna B. Winchester, soprano, Mrs. Ruth Anderson, contralto, Mrs. De A. Yeller, tenor, Homer Hervey, bass, while nearly 100 voices swelled the choir. A Mass, Organ and de Fremery presided at the organ.

FIRST METHODIST. Selections sang by a quartet consisting of Mrs. Lillian B. Scott, soprano, Mrs. O'Leary D. Fox, contralto, Edwin Draper, tenor, and Fred Anderson, baritone. Feature of the service at the First Methodist Episcopal church at Twenty-fourth and Broadway, "The Song near the Cross" stood Mary Wrenne. "Levels Apparent" from "Garden of Redemption" was rendered by the entire choir. Mrs. Paul also sang "The Palm." The pastor, Dr. John Stephens, gave the second of a series of three sermons on "The Future Life," showing reasons why he believes in and preaches immortality.

PLYMOUTH CHURCH. The Plymouth church at Plymouth rendered a concert representing its debt of $30,000 to a half block Sunday showing that 14 of the children had no money. Seven teams of workers, including Mrs. W. W. Forward, Mrs. W. O. Atwater, Mrs. S. R. Lovejoy, W. W. Fazio, H. C. Patra, U. L. Ormby and S. P. Thorne have been selected from 300 contributors. At the services yesterday the pastor, Rev. C. L. Kloss, said that he hoped to close the campaign by Easter.

Palm Sunday was observed in Eastbay churches Sunday with special music and no-laster sermons. At St. Mark's Episcopal church, branches of palm were blessed and distributed among the congregation, while the choir rendered special music. The conservatory choir rendered Wiegand's mass and Professor Norman P. Winkle sang "The Future" as an offertory. Similar services were held at St. Francis de Sales, St. Anthony's, St. Andrew's, St. Joseph's, St. Patrick's, St. Columba's, St. Gertrude's and St. Leo's churches.

Wife of Officer Is Set Free on Writ

PORTLAND, Ore., April 15.—Efforts of attorneys here for Captain James Mannion, U. S. A., to prevail upon authorities at Honolulu to hold Mrs. Enriqueta Mannion, his divorced wife, who arrived there last Friday on the steamer Columbia, en route to the Philippines, proved fruitless, according to a cablegram received from the Honolulu police department. In it George J. Cameron, attorney for Mannion, was informed that Mrs. Mannion had obtained her release on habeas corpus proceedings, and that unless a warrant was cabled she would depart on the Columbia for Manila. Captain Mannion is pursuing his former wife in an effort to obtain custody of their two younger children, who are with her. His steamer is due at Honolulu.

PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT BILL SIGNED

SACRAMENTO, April 15.—The Harris prohibition enforcement bill was signed today by Governor William D. Stephens.

The governor also signed a bill by Senator Bennett regarding the manufacture and sale of imitation milk and prohibiting its use as infants' food. Among other bills signed by the governor were the following: A bill authorizing the construction of a cut-off in the San Joaquin river, near Stockton.

Taxpayers' Bill Must Await Turn

SACRAMENTO, April 15.—The Assembly today rejected, 11 to 29, Carter's motion to have set for special consideration at 2 o'clock in the afternoon April 22, the bill embodying the plan of the Taxpayers' Association of California for reorganizing the state government. The bill will take its regular place on the file with the other bills today, concluding final consideration of its own measures.

After the vote was announced White offered a resolution seeking to have the concurrent resolution for adjournment April 22 rescinded. Over the protest of White Speaker Wright referred the resolution to the ways and means committee. The resolution stated that appropriations voted by the legislature if approved by the governor, would bankrupt the state and that the White-Carter bill should be considered, inasmuch as it proposed to reduce expenses of the state.

State Road Program Is Changed $40,000,000 Bonds Are Proposed Kern River Highway Endorsed

SACRAMENTO, April 15.—The Senate voted 23 to 15 last night to substitute the Walker's Pass-Kern river highway for the Lancaster-Bailey's road in the construction program outlined in the proposed constitutional amendment providing for a $40,000,000 highway bond issue.

The Senate passed today without opposition Senator Johnson's bill providing for a special State election August 26 next to submit a $10,000,000 highway bond issue to the voters. A constitutional amendment providing for the bonds will come up in the Senate late today for final action. It was introduced by Johnson and was amended yesterday to substitute the Walker's Pass-Kern river road for the Lancaster-Bailey road.

Senator Duncan said today he would renew his fight in the Assembly to have the amounts in the proposed road specified in the constitutional amendment. The Senate voted down amendments last night incorporating this proposal.

Senator Irwin led the fight for the substitution of the Kern River road. He said it would cost $100,000 less than the Lancaster-Bailey road and that it would serve "a more useful purpose."

"The only objection I have heard to this road is that it was not presented at the citizens' conference in San Francisco and to the committee of twenty-one which prepared the program," Irwin said.

"This was due, he said, to the fact that members of the board of supervisors of Kern county could not at the time attend the meeting because of illness and for other reasons and also to the fact that notice of the meeting was not received by the Board of Trade.

SCENIC REGION IS OPENED TO TRAVEL.
"The road provides an outlet from Inyo county into the San Joaquin valley and opens to automobile travel a beautiful scenic region," Irwin said. "The Lancaster to Bailey's road serves only a local purpose."

Questions asked by Senator W. J. Benson—Appropriating $75,000 for a manual training building at the San Jose state normal school.

McDonald—Increasing the salaries of the judges at San Francisco $10 a month each.

Kelsoe—Placing corporations distribution of steam heat under jurisdiction of the State Railroad Commission.

McCrory—Creating a "transbay survey board" to select a point for bridging San Francisco bay between San Francisco and Alameda counties.

STATE PUBLICITY FUND APPROVED
SACRAMENTO, April 15.—The Senate passed last night, 26 to 4, a bill by Senator Broad creating a state publicity department to advertise California. The measure appropriates $100,000 annually, contingent Broad said, "on public-spirited citizens raising a like amount for advertising."

Senator Harris said that in view of our "dull ignorance as to the state of our finances I will vote against this measure and every other appropriation bill for which no adequate provision has been made."

Other bills passed by the Senate last night included the following: Brown—Authorizing the sale of the present site of the Whittier State School.

Crowley—Permitting coroners to employ stenographers at inquests.

Evans and Sample—Declaring the road from Willows to Oroville a state highway.

STATE MARKET BILL OPPOSED BY ASSEMBLY

SACRAMENTO, April 15.—The assembly last night rejected, 37 to 22, Assemblyman Eklund's bill to establish a state commission for fishery, dairy and farm products. The bill would repeal the state market commission act under which Eklund's bill was introduced, state market director, holds office.

The assembly today refused, 28 to 25, to reconsider its action of yesterday in refusing passage to Eklund's bill. The bill is now officially dead in the assembly.

The bill carried an appropriation of $40,000 and was one of a few measures adversely reported by the ways and means committee, refused passage in the house to the state law.

PASS APPROPRIATION BILLS.
Bills disapproved by the ways and means committee carrying appropriations aggregating $437,000 were passed, as well as others, approved by the committee carrying appropriations of $85,500 and one with no recommendation carrying $150,000.

In addition to all of these the assembly passed Eklund's bill to raise by 15 per cent the pay of all state employees receiving less than $125, which T. M. Wright, chairman of the ways and means committee, said would add $300,000 to the state tax burden. The house refused to reconsider its action in passing over the committee's adverse recommendation.

Bennett's psychopathic hospital bill carrying a $200,000 appropriation.

At the close of the day's session Carter attempted to have set for special consideration today his and White's bill embodying the plan of the Taxpayers' Association of California for reorganizing the state government. The house carried Gebhardt's motion to adjourn, shutting off further action on the bill until today as last night's session was devoted exclusively to measures already placed on the special urgency file.

After Eklund explained that his bill proposed to establish state markets where products would be placed before the consumer at a commission to pay the cost of the market operation, Kline said the measure was withdrawn as a part of the fight against Weinstock.

MARKET DIRECTOR FIGHT.
Morris read a contract of the Northern California Milk Producers' Association with the San Francisco distributors, which he said was a violation of the warning against combinations in restraint of trade given the market director by U. S. Webb, attorney general.

"The market director connived with the producers and distributors with the result that 300,000 gallons of milk a day were dumped into the gutters in San Francisco," Morris said.

"The only opposition to the market director," said Bruck, "has come from those who want to go out and say to the farmers, 'I'll give you so much for your product, and force them to take that price or nothing.'—RIGHT TO ORGANIZE."

"The farmers have organized and they are at war with the market director. They have a right to organize, just as the clerks and workmen have to form unions and say what they will sell their labor for."

"For milk dairymen," he continued, "it is absurd to believe milk would be destroyed when it might be used for its by-products."

Morris said the milk was still being destroyed.

Strother characterized the bill as "pernicious and destructive." He, Odale and Windom said the organization of producers in the San Joaquin valley formed by Weinstock had brought increased prosperity and had eliminated waste.

McCrory told Strother he had never heard of a consumer advocating the work of the market director.

ASSEMBLY BILLS PASSED.
Among the assembly bills bearing adverse committee reports passed by the assembly were these:

Oakley—$100,000 for a Lompoc-Santa Ynez river highway in Santa Barbara county.

Argabrite—$100,000 for a Maricopa-Ujai highway in Ventura and Kern counties.

Vicini—$25,000 for the Amador county branch and $15,000 for the Calaveras branch of the Alpine State highway.

Mrs. Hughes—$7500 for the Chico-Deer Creek post highway, known as the "Lake Almanor highway."

M. B. Browne—$5000 for a survey of a road between Auburn and Jamestown.

Steward—$20,000 for a highway between Alturas and Cedarville in Modoc county.

HOOVER TELLS OF ALLIES' BIG RELIEF WORK

PARIS, April 15.—Herbert Hoover, director general of relief, has issued a review of the measures carried out by the United States, Great Britain, France and Italy during the month of March through the coordination of the supreme economic council. The total value of supplies distributed in the month was approximately $35,000,000, of which all but about $2,000,000 was furnished on a basis of deferred payments. The supplies amounted to 388,041 tons.

Poland received 51,745 tons of supplies.

Under the terms of the armistice agreements shipment through Danzig, says Hoover, have proceeded with great smoothness. All sections threatened with critical famine conditions have received relief.

Finland during the month received 26,244 tons of supplies. About 10,000 tons of these supplies were furnished under replacement agreements with northern neutrals.

Emergency measures for the establishment of regular supplies to the coastal areas in the Baltic states, says the review, have been undertaken. 275,500 metric tons of breadstuffs are being actually delivered during the month.

RELIEF DISTRIBUTED.
Czecho-Slovakia has received 29,911 metric tons, including 26,280 tons of breadstuffs. The distribution in this territory was less during the month than had been hoped for, owing to the difficulties of railway transportation from the Adriatic.

German-Austria: The total deliveries from allied sources during March were 35,120 metric tons. The situation at Vienna, says Hoover, is extremely bad and measures have been taken to increase the arrivals of 2000 metric tons a day if transportation permits.

Yugoslavia: The relief of the entire area of Jugoslavia, Montenegro and Serbia is conducted as a single unit. The total distribution in this territory amounted to 33,920 metric tons.

Yugoslavia: Total deliveries for the month were 35,967 metric tons of breadstuffs. Owing to ice in the Danube and the reduction in railway rolling stock from about 1000 locomotives under repair, the situation in 1919 actually is using during the month, adequate distribution inland was rendered impossible.

Turkey: During the month 2398 tons were distributed in Constantinople. The military authorities are making further distribution inland.

ARMENIANS ARE FED.
Armenia: The relief administration supplied to Armenia 5251 tons of breadstuffs and condensed milk. In addition, three carloads of food, clothing and medical supplies have been delivered for the relief commission.

Belgium: Supplies to the amount of 145,694 tons were delivered during the month. This includes 113,173 tons of breadstuffs. The energetic development of the Belgian ministry, says the review, has rendered it possible for the government to undertake at an early date its own purchase of supplies and transportation.

Northern France: The progress of resumption of reutilization of the recuperated regions by the French food ministry, says Hoover, has proceeded so far as to render it possible gradually to withdraw measures which have been continuous for over four and one-half years, and such withdrawal should be completed by May 1.

Germany: Financial, tonnage and food arrangements were completed at Brussels on March 14, the first German ship arriving at allied ports about March 22 and on March 25 foodstuffs were actually delivered inside German territory, consisting of 6767 tons of breadstuffs and 140 tons of fats.

Other relief measures have been inaugurated relating to Bulgaria, Russian prisoners in Germany, refugees from South Russia and in other directions.

Compromise Reached in Tahoe Camp Bill

SACRAMENTO, April 14.—A compromise agreement on a bill by Senator Gates authorizing the fish and game commission to sell its fish hatchery on Lake Tahoe, was reached today by a free conference committee of the Senate and Assembly. It was agreed that the bill should be amended to permit use of the site as a public camping ground and that the fish and game commission be allowed to retain jurisdiction over the property.

Physicians to Hear of Lessons of War

SANTA BARBARA, April 15.—Five hundred members of the California Medical Society attended the opening of the forty-eighth annual convention here this morning. Addresses based on what physicians and surgeons have learned during the war are to feature the sessions. The discussion of the influenza epidemic also will be on the program.

Advertising for the profession, public health laws and social agencies will be dealt with by the speakers at luncheon tomorrow. P. H. McCarthy, president of the State Building Trades Council, and J. J. Tynan, manager of the Union Iron Works, will speak on the health needs of labor and capital.

DALLAS, Texas, April 15.—After flying from San Diego, Cal., to Shreveport, La., with but three stops in record time, Major T. C. McCauley, commandant at Taliaferro Field, Fort Worth, Texas, was forced to give up his proposed coast-to-coast flight last night.

The major ran into heavy winds over Shreveport and was forced to turn back, landing at Love Field, Dallas. He was en route to Jacksonville, Fla.

Soldiers' Council Is Rejected by Labor

SPOKANE, Wash., April 15.—The Central Labor Council last night refused to endorse the move now on foot here to organize a soldiers' and sailors' council.

Piano Player Proves He's Better Thumper

The piano player fell out with the banjo player. There was a fight in which the piano player proved the better thumper of the two. These circumstances, it was revealed in court this morning, were at the bottom of the disturbance at the Tuxedo cafe on Ninth street, two weeks ago as the result of which knives and razors were later flashed and three men were sent to the hospital. Vito Bernardo, alleged chief knife wielder, was having his preliminary hearing.

Henry Dutrow was in court exhibiting a deep wound in the abdomen and blood-stained coat, shirt and vest. Albert Newman, the piano player, was said to have been cut on the neck. Sam Davis said he was cut on the hand.

Soldiers' Bodies to Be Returned

Relatives of Eastbay men killed in action or who died in France are receiving blanks from the War Department asking what disposition of the body is desired. The government is making provision to bring back every body where desired in order that interment can be made at a place picked by the relatives, providing it is near the home of the soldier.

Relatives requesting that remains be brought to the United States are being notified by the government that between one and two years will elapse before this work is begun as it is expected to be the last work before the American troops completely withdraw from France.

A vertical decorative border on the right side of the page, featuring a repeating geometric pattern of small squares and lines, creating a textured, woven appearance.

A detailed woodcut illustration of a landscape. In the background, a large, multi-story building with a central tower and several windows stands behind a line of trees. A path or road leads from the foreground towards the building. The foreground is filled with dense foliage and trees. The entire scene is enclosed within a rectangular frame. To the right of the frame is a vertical decorative border featuring a stylized leaf or flame-like motif. Below the frame is a wide, ornate horizontal border with a repeating floral and scrollwork pattern. The style is characteristic of 19th-century book illustrations.

THE RACE QUESTION.

If the brief cable despatches from Europe have not been interpreted incorrectly, Japan has failed in her effort to have incorporated in the League of Nations covenant a categorical declaration of the equality of races under the domestic laws and regulations of the several nations. The defeat of the Japanese delegates to the peace conference is not a serious one, but it should not have been sustained—for the very good reason that the demand should not have been made. Japanese diplomacy was at fault when it conceived the plan of trying to win recognition of this principle in the League of Nations constitution.

Equality of races is not a matter on which it is easy for different civilizations to agree, or on which nations with differing economic and cultural habits can easily be reconciled. It is one of those troublesome questions which cannot be viewed in its entirety at one time. The point of view is vital. Because one people, for local and special reasons, does not consider or find it in conformity with their best interests to admit all other peoples to the benefits and advantages of their land and laws on an equal basis does not carry an implication of racial inferiority. It might mean quite the reverse. The sensibilities of the people of America and Europe were never seriously disturbed because, less than a century ago, the Chinese held all foreigners to be of inferior races. It only to do homage to China.

The Japanese commissioners, of course, had something in view besides the mere formal admission of racial equality. That was freedom from discrimination under the immigration laws of foreign countries, which is not based on racial inequality at all. This underlying purpose was so palpable that the effort of the Japanese delegates appeared as crudely simple. The skillful diplomat would not have risked so big a thing as racial quality for so small a thing as nullification of the California land laws; especially when it was known in advance that the outcome would be doubtful.

Japan should not grieve and feel that the Allied nations have affronted her through failure to adopt her viewpoint. The other nations of the entente coalition do not consider that any cause has been given for this. They refuse to concede that national restrictions against immigration could provide any test of racial fitness.

MORE WEALTH FOR FARMER.

The poor farmer faces the prospect of becoming richer during the present year than ever before. With a government harvest of 1,130,000,000 bushels of wheat and a government guaranteed price of over $2.20 a bushel, he will receive for one item of his crop around $2,250,000,000. Then there are all the other cereals, the vegetable and fruit crops and the stock products.

Twenty-one and one-third billion dollars was the value of the agricultural products for 1918, a harvest wealth never before equalled in the United States. Present indications are for a $22,000,000,000 production this year. About $15,000,000,000 will be received for crops and the remainder from the animal industry.

If full value for this output of the land is realized much of it will have to be sent into foreign markets. In the matter of wheat, for instance, the domestic consumption is estimated to be about 550,000,000 bushels, with 75,000,000 bushels needed for seeding. Therefore the United States will have about 500,000,000 bushels of wheat for export. The meat products, cotton, minerals and manufactures will swell the volume of exports.

These products ought to be carried in American ships to as large extent as possible. There must be some new financial arrangements. With the Allied nations of Europe owing this country $500,000,000 a year in interest on loans and paying for the vast quantities of material they will need and which we very much desire they buy, they will be hard pressed to find the necessary cash.

Much has been said about the supremacy of the American dollar and the new strength of the financial position of this country. All financial theories will be severely tested during the period of distribution of America's peace products for 1919. Meantime the farmer, fortified with one year of unprecedented prosperity, does not have to worry. This is for the people who must buy his products.

REPARATION IN KIND.

Semi-official statements from the peace conference are to the effect that France "has been given the Saar basin" in the peace conditions the Allied commissioners have drafted for Germany to sign. The arrangement under which France is to hold this district has not been made public, but in all probability she will exercise jurisdiction only for a limited term of years. The principle of self-determination would seem to preclude the outright annexation of this territory, notwithstanding that justice and the safety of France might sanction such an act. This is one instance in which the fourteen points of President Wilson may work against the Allies.

But there is nothing in the declarations of the President, which have been made the basis of peace negotiations, to prevent the placing of the Saar basin under French control until Germany compensates the Allies in money and kind for the lawless damage perpetrated during the war. Then when the bill for reparation is paid the inhabitants of the district may be permitted to determine what their further fate may be.

Beside the consideration of military safeguards there is an especial reason why the Saar valley should be controlled by France during the next several years. It is a rich coal producing district and France needs coal very badly, a need that has been produced by Germany alone.

Two-thirds of the coal mines of France have been rendered unproductive. They were wrecked out of pure wantonness, but by a carefully directed system. In the region east of Douai the Germans, when they began their retreat last summer, destroyed all the shafts, machinery and other equipment. They put bombs in the machines and when these were exploded they created great havoc. Then water was turned in, flooding the mines. In the region west of Douai the destruction was even more complete. The enemy had longer to work.

Experts say the annual loss of coal from this cause is at present about 12,000,000 pounds. It will be less with time, but it will be eight or ten years before pre-war production is regained. Germany might pay the full cash value of the destruction wrought, but that would not suffice. France would have to buy her coal elsewhere and thousands of her people would be without work. Not in the coal mines alone. If coal must be imported many of the industries of the country cannot survive. Not only the spinning and weaving mills of Lille, the metallurgical factories of Cambrai, and the once busy establishments of a hundred other towns in Northern France which have been pillaged systematically by the Huns, but industry in other sections.

So the reparation should be in a form not easiest for Germany and hardest for France, but in a form easiest for France. Coal is an essential need for clearing up the German wreckage. There is German coal in the Saar basin—near at hand and cheaply produced. It is only just that Germany should be obliged to turn over this coal to the use of the people whose resources Germany destroyed.

Unless this method is followed, and the enemy is made to disgorge the stolen machinery and equipment she carried away home during the war, France and Belgium will be obliged to buy their products from Germany and thus the reparation will be paid out of profits on commerce with the outraged victims of the war.

Clemenceau, Foch and other French statesmen have stood firmly upon their demand for control of the Saar basin until reparation has been at least partly accomplished. President Wilson and the British commission are reported to have opposed them at first. But when the British people indicated unmistakably that they had not been influenced by the anti-French propaganda, which it appears was aided by some Americans in Paris, Premier Lloyd George shifted back to the side of France. Now, it appears, the American delegation has acquiesced. This will please the people of this country, for it can never be appreciated, much less forgotten, how much France has suffered from the German marauders.

COLLEGE PRESIDENTS

Recent executive changes in a number of State universities would have attracted wide attention had they not been pre-empted. President Benjamin Ide Wheeler, of California, and President Henry B. Hutchins, of the University of Michigan, respectively, are the latest to retire. Wheeler has been at the head of California since 1899 and seen it grow to one of the richest and highest esteemed of our universities, claiming a registration second only to Columbia. Hutchins, succeeding Angell in 1910, is credited especially with developing alumni interest in what was already probably the most famous of State universities. It is interesting that Dean James R. Angell of the University of Chicago, a son of the late President Angell of Ann Arbor, is spoken of for the presidency. The University of Wisconsin is now presided over by Edward A. Birge, who expects to serve only two years. In three principal State Institutions a presidential retirement will thus soon have been brought about by age; President Hutchins speaks specifically of the desirability of having a younger man begin with "the reconstruction period." But in some State universities elderly presidents have shown marked capacity to see visions and to bring them to pass.—New York Evening Post.

NOTES and COMMENT

Los Angeles at one time was proud to be reckoned the world center of the film industry, but now it seems to be showing indifference. It is complained that the people there are "merely tolerating" the various enterprises, and such magnates as D. W. Griffith are talking of moving up this way. Appears to be a hunch to us that we should be glad to have them, and not become blasé after they arrive.

It is interesting to read the statement that Samuel Gompers had about the best conception of the peace situation of all those congregated in Paris. He was not an accredited envoy, but was able to give advice that would have been valuable had it been followed. For the problems are in considerable part those of labor, and Gompers knows a good deal about that.

The best move that has yet been made for the Victory loan is that which secured Ole Hanson to campaign for the country. There is a great desire to see and hear him, and when he tells of the Seattle affair, and explains the necessity of guarding against such occurrences in the future, he will have said the most compelling thing possible to induce American citizens to subscribe for the last great loan.

One way of looking at it is that Oakland wins a certain distinction through the concern of the Federal government in its election; but from another point of view it might be figured that there is not as much faith lodged in its ability to meet municipal emergencies as there should be.

"McAdoo meets Money and Philbin and goes East." It may not have been intended that way, but the item could be construed as implying that that was enough for him.

When it is more forcibly brought out in photographs taken from airplanes how our cities are laid out we marvel at the weird ideas of the founders when they had a virgin field, without obstacle or speck in the way of doing the best possible. Generally, however, there were several founders and supplementary founders, whose ideas failed as strikingly to coincide as their streets did.

Lloyd George has to "duck" the peace conference for a week and go home and attend to things, and it isn't as far from Paris to London as it is from Paris to Washington, and the interruption will be brief.

If Paderewski fails to make his president job stick he will find an acutely followed field when he resumes his concert tours. He was a great drawing card at the piano before, and added to that will be record of his excursion into statesmanship—his efforts to re-establish Poland. Together they will make him the most interesting figure on the stage.

"King of the Belgians pleads at Paris to save his country from Bolshevism by making it possible to afford the people work and supply them food. King Albert has not been a great talker through the four and more years of his country's horrible experience, and might be listened to now with considerable reason.

Wonders are occurring. A Turk was publicly hanged in Stamboul for Armenian atrocities. It has always been considered a merit in a Turk to kill a Christian, and this is a Turk who changed in the Turkish point of view.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS.

Frank W. Woolworth, at 27, had an idea and $50. He believed that money could be made selling things for 5 or 10 cents. No one else believed it. But the idea stuck in Woolworth's mind and when he had saved $50 he launched his idea on a waiting world. Woolworth died this week. He had capitalized his idea for something like $65,000,000. He had 600 branch stores scattered all over the United States, Canada and England, bringing a profit of $5,000,000 annually.—Stockton Record.

Captain Ira Eaton of Santa Barbara, a dolphin fisherman, shot and killed a dolphin last week that was seven feet in length, and which was said to have followed some vessel all the way from the Atlantic coast. This specimen was the only one of its kind, it is said, to have been seen in the waters about the Santa Barbara islands during the past twenty-five years.—Catalina Islander.

The Good Templars Home at Vallejo has so fully fulfilled the purposes for which it was established many years ago, it has been decided to withhold further state aid from it. Which means that in due course of time it will be closed.—Napa Register.

Thomas Monahan, father of twins, wants to start an independent order for fathers of twin children, which would bar Arthur A. Frey, organizer of the Union No. 1, Fathers of Twins. "Free is not in our class," declares Monahan, who has two sets of twins.—San Jose Mercury-Herald.

If you want to realize how far the world is upside down, read the new franchise laws of Hungary. Under those laws all men and women of 18 years old and over may vote, except those who are employed outside to work for them, those who own property, those who are merchants, clergy-men, criminals and lunatics. Crime, insanity, religion, business property and executive capacity are the only disqualification for voting.—Breme Republican.

427 YEARS.

MRS. PHOEBE A. HEARST

By Fred Emerson Brooks

'Tis a mortal trait that seems inbred To slay the living and praise the dead.

What good to the dead is the song of cheer? Far better to chant of the good while here:

Thus out of the west with its golden days There comes the anthem of human praise

For the glorious woman we hold the first Our Lady Bountiful—Phoebe Hearst.

The Master selected his choicest mould To fashion a suitable frame to hold So many virtues in limited space.

And then to crown such a winsome face He took the sunshine out of the rose And made the smile that everyone knows.

With California she stands first Ask anybody but Phoebe Hearst.

He took of seed thoughts rare and kind To plant the Garden of the mind: From every virtue that we recall He made the heart—it took them all: If worth were real then she would be

Holding the seat of royalty As queen of the west—as Phoebe Hearst first But she's far greater, just Phoebe Hearst.

As though the Master had understood These were the hands for doing good He filled them well with the golden dust:

The world knows how they have kept the trust: For bounty sits at her open door And Largess labors to keep the score:

Our Great University stands the first: Because of the woman—Phoebe Hearst. (Written in 1913 but never published.)

PARIS OF THE BALKANS.

The sufferings of Rumania in the war were great and prolonged. Out of some 8,000,000 people, more than 600,000 were killed in battle or died of disease, and the invaders succeeded in destroying or carrying off much of the movable wealth of the country and almost all the rolling stock of the railroads, which was necessary for food relief. Today 15,000 tons of food are waiting at Constanta because there are no trains to take them inland.

But in spite of these troubles the spirit of Bucharest seems to be the same. Some shipments have arrived from France. With clothing costing $250 a suit, eggs a dollar apiece, a cup of coffee a dollar, one would think that the precious space of these trains would have been used for the necessities of life. And they were, but for the necessities of life as Bucharest sees them. French perfumes and silk stockings were brought in by the carload, the populace is willing to wait for food. The Paris of the Balkans, it may still apply that term to the capital of a people which denies that it belongs to the Balkan system, seems to have the same temperament as before the war.—New York Times.

NEEDN'T BAR IMMIGRATION.

A correspondent suggests that when the news that the United States is completely and distressingly dry reaches the outer world there will be no occasion to put up any bars to immigration. No European outlander is going to come to a dry country with his eyes open.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Pioneer of State Dies at San Rafael

CHICO, April 15.—Jackson Bean, one of the last surviving members of the California Society of Pioneers who came to California in 1848, died at his home in San Rafael Sunday at the age of 82 years. He was under-sheriff, tax collector and assessor in Butte county in the 70's, and conducted early day hotels in Chico and Woodland.

New Tunnel Opened; Built in Six Years

NEW YORK, April 15.—Without formal ceremonies the new Clark street tunnel under the East river, connecting the Seventh avenue subway with Brooklyn was opened. Construction of the tunnel which cost $7,000,000 was begun in October 1914.

COWBOY AND GIRL, 15, ELOPE; FEAR MOTHER

After all, Sarah Denber, 15, wasn't marrying Montana Bill's clothes. She was marrying Bill himself—that is, if she did marry him.

If so, Bill, who measures six-foot-six to the peak of his cowboy hat, did have on blue jumpers and blue overalls when Sarah eloped with him—if she eloped with him—say, it out to odds in the same of love.

That Sarah eloped with Montana Bill and that they are probably married by now is the opinion expressed to the police by the mother, Mrs. Julius Denber, 511 Bush street.

Sarah, with her brown hair and brown eyes and brown coat, had stolen the soldier's emotions of Bill some months ago when he boarded at her home. But Bill took too great an interest in Sarah to suit the mother's fancy—so Bill went away.

Bill went to Stockton, where he tended horses, hogging being right in his line. But always, while Bill minded his horses, there was a vision of brown eyes that he couldn't shut out. Yesterday, according to the mother, Bill came down from Stockton, and Sarah and took her away with him.

Mrs. Denber describes her daughter as 15 years old, five feet one inch tall, and 115 pounds in weight. Besides the brown coat she wore gray leather shoes, a

6000 FRENCH BRIDES WON BY AMERICANS

PARIS, April 15.—That could be nearly as busy as Mars with the members of the American Expeditionary Force, and that romance blossomed in France in spite of war's alarms is shown by the fact that more than six thousand French women have been wooed and won by American soldiers within one year. The majority of the French girls who have become Americans through marrying men and officers of the American Expeditionary Force are stenographers, salesgirls or teachers, with a sprinkling of peasant girls and those of the middle class or bourgeoisie.

The romances are in most cases very similar. A soldier would be killed with a French family, a member of which would be a girl of marriageable age. Together they would devote into the privacy of the French language, she, language being promptly superseded by a combination of Anglo-French jargon.

Many such pairs now are puzzled whether the wife should accompany her husband to America or the husband should make his home in France. It is expected that fully fifty per cent of the beneficiaries will adopt France for their future home.

Frank M. Smith Is Dead in Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, April 15.—Former State Senator Frank M. Smith died at his home here last night after a short illness. He was aged 61.

Light dress and a blue hat, she says, Bill, in addition to his costume in blue, had a light complexion and smooth hair, she says. The Denber home is at 511 Bush street.

'Cello Soloist Featured at The American Theater

SIGNOR GIOVANNI DE PAPAECOROPULO, cello soloist with John Wherry Lewis and his orchestra at the American Theater, whose rendition of Dario Pappas' famous "Cavotte" will be a feature of the new bill which opens tomorrow.

Every evening during the presentation of the Rox Beach production, "The Brand," at the American Theater, the first half of this week, starting tomorrow, a cello solo, a Cavotte, by Signor Giovanni De Papace, will be featured.

This accomplished musician, who possesses of a Greek name, is a native of Venice, Italy, in which city he received his musical education.

Papace, at the tender age of eight, entered the Conservatory of Music at Venice, where for eleven years he studied under the great violinist Montecchi and the famous teacher and perfect tone of that master musician is reflected in the playing of the cello.

For several seasons after leaving the Conservatory of Music, the young cellist toured the principal cities of Europe with Mascagni's Symphony Orchestra, playing first cello in that famous musical organization. Later, he journeyed to the Hawaiian Islands where for a number of seasons he appeared in concert work in the principal cities of the island of the Kingdom.

Coming to California, Papace became a member of the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra and later accepted position as solo cello with John Wherry Lewis and his orchestra, with whom he has played for several years.

Signor Papace, who maintains a music studio in the Pacific building, where he teaches, as only he is capable of teaching, the art of playing the beautiful toned cello in the instrument which closer than any other resembles the human voice.—Advt.

Sundry Merry Tales of Birds, Persons and Things

"Buttered Toast" will take the place of the late lamented "Municipal Pelican" as the mascot of the city. The pelican caught cold and died out in Lake Merritt. Today "Buttered Toast" was offered the park board.

"Buttered Toast" is a rabbit. He used to belong to Steve Juhaz, a magician who once played Oakland, and is called "Buttered Toast" because Juhaz used to call him that, saying it was an ancient Greek magic word he learned in a restaurant. But "Buttered Toast" got too big to use in the trick, so Juhaz several weeks ago left him in a local theater when he fared forth. Staggered about the streets, he was picked up by the police and taken to the police station for the children to play with.

The pelican, given the park board by Mrs. Mary Olander, spent several weeks in the lake before a cold overtook him, or as some say, he stuck in the mud and couldn't catch fish. Anyhow, something happened, for "Otto," municipal terror and municipal gourmand, has quietly passed in his checks or whatever pelicans do when they die, and is gone from this municipal sphere, to the considerable relief of the ducks, who never could get used to him.

LOSES 23 POUNDS IN SHORT WALK

"Fritz" Schroeder, police lieutenant and the largest policeman in the world, is wondering, "Is losing weight, or are the scales going dim?"

He is still puzzling over it. He is still puzzling over it. He is still puzzling over it.

Following his usual custom, the lieutenant stopped and weighed on various scales as he went out for his dinner last night. Horrors! He seemed to have gone down to 285 pounds. He is used to weighing in at 308. Another weight indicator made him even a shade less.

He is still puzzling over it. He is still puzzling over it. He is still puzzling over it.

But men in the police station say that he forgot to buckle on his revolver belt with his holster, cartridges and artillery. Maybe that has something to do with it.

TRIES CHLOROFORM FOR LIFE EXAMINE.

Gone is the day when the startled eye meets pictures of very old men absorbing "shots" of a certain malt whisky and hearing the inscription "Guffy's whisky keeps me young."

Wherefore Edward O'Day is seeking something new in the way of an elixir a la Ponce de Leon—and is recovering from a "shot" that almost killed him as the result of the first adventure in his search for perpetual youth. He tried chloroform.

He wandered into a drug store to find his elixir of youth. He learned that "Kobe Isares Kure Kolds" and that "Hoozus Hooza Heads the Hides"—but the nearest thing he could find to something to keep a man young without being intoxicated was chloroform.

A little while later he was found unconscious at Twelfth street and Broadway and hurried to the Emergency hospital. They pumped him out, administered antidotes and today he is out again, safe and feeling not a bit younger than he did before he absorbed the magic draft. He's still looking for his elixir.

DINNER READY? ASKS RETURNED FUGITIVE

Steve De Costa, chain-gang escapee, is back in jail again. He didn't really want to escape. He likes the nice warm city jail and all that. He simply had a "date" he wanted to keep, but it fell through and so he came right back to his erstwhile home.

Costa had been serving a six months' term for vagrancy and would have ended his term today. He wandered away from the chain gang at the municipal quarry. Last night he reported back to the jail, saying that he didn't want any one to think he was escaping—oh, no! "I had a date and it fell through," he explained to the amazed cops. "Is dinner ready yet?"

WOMAN PURSUES FLEEING BURGLAR

What Bill Shakespeare said about a certain woman locally having nothing in stock to compare with a scorned woman goes double a burlesque—that's the opinion today of the burglar, whoever he was, who visited Mrs. M. B. Albright of 3818 Howe street. For Mrs. Howe didn't wait to telephone the police or anything—she chased the intruder, who fled, and was last seen making very good time toward Livermore.

Gilroy Sees Whippet Tank Performances

GILROY, April 15.—Public interest in the Victory Loan was brought to a high pitch by the appearance here of the Victory Loan train with its curbs of speakers and war trophies. A whippet tank in its camouflage paint maneuvered rapidly around the railroad station and climbed many obstacles, much to the delight of a large crowd.

FIRES ON POLICE; THEN ENDS LIFE

SAN JOSE, April 15.—V. W. Scott, wearing the uniform of a sergeant in the artillery corps, shot and killed himself early today in a hotel room, when two policemen, searching for him, broke down the door.

Scott had descended by a drain pipe from the floor above when police demanded admittance. Cries for help from the room brought the police, who entered the unlighted room. One shot was fired at them, scorching their faces.

W. H. Brown, occupant of the room where the tragedy occurred, said Scott entered his window and threatened him if he betrayed his presence.

Scott was identified by the police through his signature on a hotel register and a card giving the address of Mrs. M. Scott, 1332 Twenty-second street, San Francisco. The police sought him in connection with unexplained thefts in hotels here.

VICTORY LOAN QUOTAS BELOW FOURTH LOAN

Oakland's quota for the Victory Loan has been fixed at $9,741,433, $3,245,425 less than the Fourth Liberty Loan.

Berkeley's quota for the Victory Loan is $1,719,000 as compared to $2,551,700 for the Fourth Liberty Loan.

The figures for Alameda are $725,300 for the Victory and $960,150 for the Fourth.

Richmond is called on to subscribe $76,000 for the Victory Loan, and this quota is approximately 25 per cent less than the Fourth.

The figures were made public today, the total quota of Alameda county having been fixed yesterday at $13,135,000. In making the announcement today, Carey S. Hill of Oakland, campaign manager for Northern California, said that throughout the country the quotas are approximately 25 per cent less than those of the Fourth Liberty Loan, and that he expects each locality will go "over the top" even more emphatically than in the case in the other loan drives, in all of which Alameda county exceeded its quota substantially.

COMMITTEE OPTIMISTIC. Oakland's headquarters for the Fifth Liberty Loan campaign were opened today in the trophy room of the City Hall, at the Washington street entrance.

Sign painters began work for great bigness. Committees began illuminating the city with posters. Heads of departments outlined their own part in the great campaign, the result of all the experience of all the other campaigns, will handle the great campaign without a hitch and put Oakland and Alameda county far over the top.

The committee is optimistic. It believes that the Eastbay may go over the top in the first week of the campaign.

"People know that the bonds are not only a patriotic investment, but a good, sound business investment as well," says the committee. "Folks who have bought bonds of the other issues have rarely had regrets. Thousands of persons have found themselves with greater assets than ever before because of these bonds."

HIGHER INTEREST RATE. The actual campaign begins April 21, and banks and business houses are preparing their organizations for the influx of subscribers.

The Victory Loan will be more attractive than any other loan. It will be secured by four-year Government bonds bearing 4 1/2 per cent interest. Higher rates than ever before.

The Victory Loan committee has perfected its full organization and started work. William Cavalier is campaign chairman. Walter Cole is campaign manager. Captain Walter A. Petersen, former chief of police and recent commander of B Battery of Oakland, will be assistant campaign manager, with C. F. Grady as secretary.

The executive committee will be headed by Joseph E. Caine and will comprise: S. E. Biddle, H. C. Capwell, J. F. Harrison, William Cavalier, W. A. Charters, J. Y. Egan, O. D. Jacoby, Joseph R. Knowland, J. C. Miller, E. A. Vandewater, W. W. Garthwaite.

Division chairmen and vice-chairmen are being appointed, and by tomorrow the greatest of the Liberty Loan campaigns will be in full swing.

Dry Law Referendum Petitions Prepared. SACRAMENTO, April 15.—Circulation of petitions asking for a referendum vote on the passage of the Harris prohibition enforcement bill and the action of the legislature in ratifying the national prohibition amendment will begin in California April 26. Assemblyman Hismark Brock announced today. He said the referendum movement would have a wide association.

FIRST VICTORY LOAN PLEDGE IS FOR $5000

Oakland's first pledge to the Victory Loan was made today by H. D. Knudsen, local manager for the Wilby Overland Pacific company, who came forward with $5000. Knudsen walked into the Chamber of Commerce and laid down his subscription. There was no completed organization to handle it. "What's all the hurry?" he was asked. "Why not wait a day?" "I believe in coming early and avoiding the rush," he replied.

CIVIL SERVICE RULING IS UPSET

Because he was assigned as a detective while holding a patrolman's rank, under the old charter, Fenton J. Thompson, acting inspector in the present department, is entitled to his full rating as inspector. This was decided today by City Attorney H. L. Hagan, who ruled that the refusal of the Civil Service Board to permit him to take this rank is illegal.

Thompson was appointed to the police in 1903, and made a detective under the old police organization. Just before the charter was adopted, he was a detective, although he drew a patrolman's pay. The charter, according to Hagan, provided that all policemen should go into ranks corresponding to grades they were filling. Thompson was laid off for several years because of illness, and on returning to the force last year asked an inspector's rating.

He is now acting as an inspector, and according to Hagan, is entitled to the salary. The superior court came home after the charter was adopted and several others designed before the charter went into effect as station pay attendants that these should be given the rank of corporal. Thompson's case, being a parallel one, Chief of Police Henry Nedderman has ordered him placed on the books as an inspector.

Victim of Auto Accident Is Dead. BERKELEY, April 15.—Mrs. Mildred Simmons, 70 years old, is dead today as the result of injuries sustained Sunday evening when she was run down at Dwight way and Shattuck avenue by an automobile driven by William H. Cross, an Oakland merchant residing at 1811 Broadway.

Death occurred yesterday afternoon at Roosevelt Hospital, where Mrs. Simmons was taken after the accident with a basal fracture of the skull. She resided at 2111 Haste street.

Cross was arrested yesterday before Judge Edgar and was fined $5 for violation of the motor vehicle act in that he had taken the car to a garage but the defect was not remedied.

Captain Petersen Is Guest of Honor. Captain of Inspectors Walter J. Petersen of the local police force, recently returned from France, guest of honor last night at a dinner tendered him by the Inspectors' Bureau. The affair took place at a local cafe. COOPERATION LABOR'S PLEA FOR SCHOOLS

"We co-operated in the war; we did not talk; we took no thought of life or poor or class or station in life, and won a great victory. We can do the same thing in civil life if we but once fully comprehend the meaning of the word co-operation."

said Arthur E. Holder, representing labor on the Federal Board of Vocational Education, in a talk at the luncheon Advertising Club in the Hotel Oakland today.

Holder, who came here from Washington, D. C., urged his hearers to select a general committee on vocational education representing all commercial interests, so that special advisory committees can be formed to work in harmony with the labor unions to help and advise the educational officials in all general and special trade educational matters of interest to the community.

C., urged his hearers to select a general committee on vocational education representing all commercial interests, so that special advisory committees can be formed to work in harmony with the labor unions to help and advise the educational officials in all general and special trade educational matters of interest to the community.

"This Federal Board for Vocational Education is the outcome of the hope of fearless, forward-looking men and women in behalf of greater freedom. The men appointed to administer this act believe they thoroughly realize that significant fact. They are men from almost every section. The chairman comes from Missouri; the secretary of commerce comes from New York; the secretary of labor from Pennsylvania; the commissioner of education from Tennessee; the vice-chairman from Massachusetts (the representative of commerce and industry) is from Indiana, while the representative of labor is from Iowa, a fair representation of the forty-eight states. We have farmers and miners, and big business men on our board. I do not know how it happened, but we have not been blessed with a lawyer on this first board."

"Now, these men said on the first day they organized—the 21st day of July, 1918—'We will try and set a new standard. If there is anything in freedom we are going to try to show that we believe in it as a holy principle, and that they who work with us and come after us shall follow the same line of action.' We also decided to cut all red tape. Any man or woman who has any message to deliver or is searching for information that we may possess is welcome to come to us without waiting at the door—the latch-string is on the outside. We are ever ready to accept all that we can get from others and we are equally willing to give what we have to others. That is true reciprocity. 'I want to speak for a moment on the point of labor's part in behalf of education. That is the key-stone in the arch of our schools—those schools have been nourished and protected by labor. Do not forget that. Labor feels that the schools are its babies and it wants to take care of them. It is for the workers, because there has grown up a feeling of hesitancy on the part of the workers to go back to the school after the war. A great gap has formed between the two classes. There has not been sufficient fraternity between the educator and the pupil and especially between the workers and the public. I mean that to apply to this group."

GIVES UP AUTO FOR YEAR TO ESCAPE JAIL

SAN FRANCISCO, April 15.—"You can have your choice, ten days in the county jail or refrain from driving any automobile for one year," said Police Judge Fitzpatrick following an arraignment of Robert W. Miller, 19, son of C. O. Miller, millionaire president of the Pacific Light Corporation and director of the Union Trust Company. He was before the court on the charge of driving past the San Francisco Hospital at 35 miles an hour with his muffler open. Young Miller chose to be deprived of driving his automobile.

The youth had been under arrest a number of times for various violations of the traffic laws, and Judge Fitzpatrick told him that a fine would not be imposed as his father would pay it and he would continue his violations.

FEARS FELT
FOR OAKLAND
MISSIONARIES

Fears for the safety of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Moffett of this city, the former a missionary in Eastern Korea, and the latter his assistant in his work, are felt by their Oakland friends as a result of the arrest of five missionaries at Seoul by the Japanese authorities. Dr. and Mrs. Moffett have not been heard from for some time and letters from them are anxiously awaited.

Mrs. Moffett was formerly Miss Lisa Fish, a graduate of the University of California in the 1901 class and later a teacher in the Oakland schools. As Miss Fish she went to Korea some years ago to engage in missionary work and soon after arriving there met and married Dr. Moffett. They have two children, a son and a daughter.

Five American missionaries at Seoul are under arrest, according to reports from the Korean National Association branch in San Francisco. He gives their names as John Thomas C. R. Atkinson, J. L. Lidwell, J. W. Hunt and E. M. Moore. The last two have been previously reported. Dr. Lee charges that Japan is covering up news of actual conditions in Korea.

That 5000 Koreans, including young boys and girls have been killed by the Japanese, as alleged by Lee. He accuses the Japanese claim that the Korean uprising is an expression of Polheimism. The Korean movement, he says, is one of non-resistance. His principles are the principles of Christianity. From his country, T. Ohta Japanese consul-general at San Francisco, has received an official summary of events in Korea from April 6 to 9 inclusive. It is translated from the records of the Japanese government-general in Korea. They charge the Koreans with assaulting Japanese and attacking Japanese officers. They show no real efforts to do the police to disperse the riot and a few deaths.

PIRE DESTROYS ROOF.
Fire, believed by the fire department to have been caused by defective wiring, yesterday burned the roof of a rooming house, operated by Mrs. J. A. Tilton at 122 1/2 Washington street. The flames had only gained a slight headway when the fire department responded.

Colored Heroes Welcomed Home
Oakland Greet Men From Battle

Heroes of the Argonne and other famous battle sectors in France and decorated with the Croix de Guerre and American distinguished service medals, a contingent of California's colored troops, now stationed at the Presidio and attached to the 32nd division, were met by a cheering throng at the Municipal Auditorium last night by the California branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. The men were applauded as they entered the building and loudly cheered as they went through maneuvers at the conclusion of a long program.

On behalf of the city each man was presented by the city council with a certificate of appreciation of the assistance they rendered in winning the great war and making the world safe for democracy.

Major John L. Davis extended greetings to the men on behalf of the people of Oakland and gave them assurance that this city was proud of the men in which they brought the news of the battle from France. The major paid a tribute to the valor and patriotism which was so strikingly displayed under shot and shell. He pointed out the distinguished service crosses worn in the men as evidence of their unquestioned bravery, and assured them that so long as democracy survives and people are able to appreciate what their deeds have done, they will be remembered.

DEEDS WILL LIVE LONG.
The major said that all Californians were glad to welcome them home. In conclusion Major Davis said: "You have fought shoulder to shoulder with all nation units. Your deeds will live long and your deeds will live in our hearts as long as love and justice reign in this world."

The program of the evening was prepared by Mr. F. C. DeLoach, secretary of the California branch of the association, and carried out under his direction.

With the audience on its feet and the uniformed men standing at salute, the Municipal orchestra, which furnished the music for the occasion, played the "March of the Colors" and the "Pomp and Circumstance" in honor of the returning heroes.

Mr. David H. Wallace of the St. Anthony Episcopal Church, delivered the invocation.

W. N. Kell was master of the ceremony and under his direction the various numbers were called.

Valter Dyer, president of the California branch of the association, introduced the group of men and their families during the course of which he paid a tribute to the colored soldiers.

At the conclusion of all members of the association sang the "Star Spangled Banner."

WILDCATS IN OLD FIFTH TO BE WELCOMED

While plans are progressing steadily for the welcome to the Veterans of the 1919 Infantry and the 247th Field Artillery on their arrival in Oakland next Monday or Tuesday, the Civic Welcome Committee has set about a new move for a still greater celebration in honor of Alameda county's fighting men, the boys of the 1919th regiment, comprising the entire membership of the old 5th regiment California National Guard. The regiment is now in Camp Merritt today and are on their way to Oakland.

The 1919th is due in Oakland April 25, one week from Friday.

Telegrams received today by Jesse Robinson, chairman of the Civic Welcome Committee, of the 1919th, announced by Mayor Davis, state definitely that the 1919th will arrive April 25.

The 1919th includes Companies A and B of Oakland 1st of Richmond C of Berkeley, and D of Hayward and R of Livermore.

All the Eastbay communities will join in the joyous welcome to these gallant sons of the 1919th. They are regular fighters in the boys, they have been through the hell of trench and mud "over there."

And so the celebration with a week of parades and entertainments for the 1919th is being planned.

While definite arrangements for the stopover of the Wildcats of the 32nd and 247th regiments are still in abeyance, Jesse Robinson believes that there will be no difficulty in getting permission to entertain the fighting men of the 1919th in this city.

Adjutant General Kirt has wired Congressmen today a telegram that is a bit something but does not present difficulties as follows:

In our welcome, 255d and 317th regiments have New York in a few days. The 1919th is being welcomed to the city of Oakland by the 1919th.

COOK POSES AS PAPKE TO WIN
OAKLAND WIDOW

LOS ANGELES, April 15.—Billy Papkin, a cook in a Main street restaurant won the affections of Mrs. Mary O'Neal 40, attractive widow of Oakland, while posing as Billy Papke, former middleweight champion pugilist, was revealed by the police here when Papkin was taken into custody on a charge of appropriating Mrs. O'Neal's diamond necklace.

Mrs. O'Neal had announced that she came here to marry Papke, the pugilist, but that the wedding was off following the disappearance of her jewelry and key to her trunk containing fine lingerie and the wedding trousseau.

Shown a picture of Papke, the police, Mrs. O'Neal said: "This is the man" then she learned that her Don Juan was not Papke at all, but Papkin, the cook. She refused to prosecute and Papkin today was a free man.

The real Billy Papke lives at Alameda and took the allusion as a joke.

"I'm married," he said. "I have three kids and don't swipe ladies' lavallieres."

FILMS WILL SHOW
RITUALISTIC WORK

Members of the Knights and Ladies of Security of this city are preparing for the meeting to be held Monday at 10 O. C. hall, 1150 Broadway street, when National President J. J. Cronwell will visit the local council and exemplify the new moving picture initiation service of the order for the benefit of the close of over one hundred candidates to be initiated that evening.

The Knights and Ladies of Security is the first society to make use of motion pictures in the portrayal of the beautiful lesson of fraternity outlined by the ritual.

The picture requires 1200 feet of film and was produced by the L. J. and M. J. Company of Chicago under the personal direction of Frederick J. Ireland, president of the company.

The story of wisdom, protection, security and the meeting as given by the ritual is reproduced on the screen in a manner that adds to the lessons taught.

A specially prepared machine is a part of the equipment and the voices of the singers are heard in the old and chants of the ritual.

The committee from Oakland Council No. 73 in charge of this meeting are A. S. McDonald, chairman, William W. Antz and Silas J. Cinnamon, and from Kirkpatrick Council No. 246 are J. W. Lester, chairman, Mrs. Hattie Barnes and Mrs. Davis.
